English 2 Honors

Summer 2017 Reading Assignment

Prospective English 2 Honors students are to obtain and read the following texts:

- Nineteen Eighty-Four (1984) by George Orwell.
- Sin Boldly!: Dr. Dave's Guide To Writing The College Paper by David R. Williams

You should have these texts read prior to the first day of school. Ultimately, you will be assessed on the texts within the first week of school, in class, in an essay-based testing format. This assessment, though your instructor will ultimately determine its weight, will significantly affect your First Quarter/Semester grade.

It is suggested you either annotate the texts or create a dialectical journal to increase your comprehension of the texts as you read—however, this is NOT required and will NOT be checked/collected by your instructor.

The essay-based assessment during the first week of school is designed to require adept comprehension of the texts and proficient writing skills in order to express well-conceived ideas in response to the given essay prompt(s).
